

Dr. Reena Kannojiya is an Associate Professor with 20 years of teaching experience at the Department of Philosophy, Miranda House, University of Delhi. She engaged professionally as an academician, author, speaker, and academic mentor. She was awarded Doctorate degree (PhD) from Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi on the topic 'A critical and comparative study of doctrine of Atman in Sankaracharya and Spirit (Geist) in G.W.F. Hegel'. Her field of research interest are comparative studies, consciousness studies (Indian and western philosophy), Ethics, Buddhism and Ambedkar studies. She authored books entitled 'Hegel's Philosophy' published from Germany in 2010 and book entitled 'Sankara's Philosophy' published by ABS Books, New Delhi (2017). She also published Book chapters in edited volumes, articles in newspapers, and research papers in national and international journals. For research pursuit she was awarded fellowship from Indian Council of Philosophical Research, New Delhi. She presented papers and was also invited for talk in national and international seminar/conferences. Awarded certificate of Business Professional Programmer, DOEACC Society, Ministry of Information Technology, New Delhi. She is a member of editorial boards of various journals and Philosophical societies of national and international repute. She travelled to United Kingdom for academic and research pursuits.

As the Convener, designed and structured a certificate course on value education titled 'Living Values'. Since 2016 this certificate course conducted annually till date.

She involved with students activities being a member of co-curricular societies 'Enactus' and 'Equal Opportunity Cell'.

She taught papers Ethics, Applied Ethics, logic, Indian theories of consciousness, Indian philosophy, philosophy of religion. As the recognized supervisor guided M. Phil and guiding PhD students.

She was also appointed as the In-charge of Philosophy Department (2009-10, 2020-2022).