A talk was delivered on the topic 'You are what you eat: food and identity in Modern India', by Dr. Saumya Gupta of Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi on 6th October 2016. The talk generated much interest among the students as they were keen to know more about food the Dalits ate.

The highlight of the year was the 30 Hour English Speaking Course organised by the EOC. The 'English Speaking-Listening Course' was designed to help students who are extremely weak in the language. The English Speaking-Listening Course aimed to integrate English with its usage in the real life context

The course used an activity/task-based approach to teach spoken English. All the tasks were structured within the framework of learner-centric approach where the teacher assumed the role of a facilitator and learner took on a more active role of doing and directing the activity.
