On 4th March an interactive session with Dr. Hemlata Mahishwer on Dalit Feminism was organized. The contribution of Dr. Ambedkar towards women's rights such as maternity leave, property rights, equal pay for equal work was also highlighted by Dr. Hemlata to emphasize that Dalit feminist leaders have always fought for all women equality.

In collaboration with the film society Celluloid, the EOC organized a session with filmmaker Jyotinisha who has made a film on Dr. Ambedkar. The feature-length documentary film titled 'B.R. Ambedkar: Now and Then', explored Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's life symbolically, politically, and delved into representation and assertion of Bahujan politics in today's time.

EOC held a competition for students on the topic "Covid 19 and its effects on the life of marginalized people. we got entries from various educational institutions and distributed the prizes.
