

Miranda House

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

Society Annual Report

Society Activities

Society: Adwitiya-The Fine Arts Society

Year- 2016-17

Adwitiya, the Fine Arts Society Miranda House participated in several events and competitions in the academic year 2016-17.

The series of events started with Fresher's talent search round followed by SAINTHOOD CELEBRATION, celebrating the sainthood of Mother Teresa. We collaborated with different societies of our own college to celebrate the canonisation of Mother Teresa by means of art, poetry and music competitions on 2nd Sep,16. Anand Dev, former chairman of Lalit Kala Academy also joined us for this event and participation from artists of different colleges made competition lively and happening.

TALK BY SEEMA KOHLI

On 9th Nov, we had a talk by Seema Kohli, a contemporary artist who has created her own niche with a wide range of mediums ranging from painting, murals, experimenting installation performances, and films to installations, sculptures etc.. The talk gave knowledge of how art is an engagement with philosophical enquiry of life.

Workshop on TEXTURES by Mr. Gopal Meena

Organised on 10th Jan, this workshop by Mr Meena, spatial experience designer, specializing in exhibition, retail and interior spaces gave artists a knowledge on how to add textures to artworks from waste products of our houses(eg comb, clutter, broken bangles etc)

Miranda House

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

POETRY WORKSHOP

This 4 day workshop organised from 16th to 21st Jan by artist Deepti Gupta was opened to everyone including Non-Mirandians turned a success. Everyone had fun as artists learned wheel poetry and hand building methods and hence explored the magic of their hands by creating beauty out of clay.

FUNDRAISER

In 30th and 31st Jan, we organised a fundraiser in which different DIY items such as bookmarks, dreamcatchers, gift cards etc were on sale.

KUNSTENAAR

(23rd-24th March)

As a part of Tempest, we organised a series of competitions and set up our annual exhibition which comprised of collective and individual artworks and installations by our members.

On the series of different competitions, we conducted a comic strip competition on the theme 'Mental Health'.

In the second competition themed 'Concoction', we gave students a chance to show their talent of painting with any medium of their choice.

The third competition was 'Masquerade' in which artists had to design a mask from given basic materials such as newspapers, thread, ribbons, styrofoam plate and sheets.

Our artists also participated in the Annual Fest of IIT Kanpur 'Antaragini' and bagged first and second positions.

Miranda House

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI
