In 2022-23, Anukriti performed its street play, UnRegistered, wherein it attempted to raise awareness about Child Sexual Abuse, emphasizing those cases that never get registered and decided to talk about it. This play has been generated from personal experiences and stories of the members, which makes the topic personal and pertinent. The play was performed at various prestigious institutions and got selected for the Atelier Campus Theatre Festival. It won several accolades, such as First Position at IIT BHU, Second Position at Lady Shri Ram College and Best Direction at Rukmini Devi Institute of Advanced Studies.

For the annual full-length production, it did a performance-based workshop, 'अनचीहिनी वीरांगनाएँ' directed by Mr. Bhumikeshwar Singh as part of 'Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav' dedicating a tribute to the unsung female warriors in the history of the Indian Independence Struggle.

Anukriti has also performed 'Toba Tek Singh' (One Act Play) for an Exchange program in collaboration with the Political Science Department and a street play to create awareness regarding Plastic and Cleanliness under Unnat Bharat Abhiyaan in Burari Village, Delhi.

To celebrate the essence of theater, Anukriti organized its annual Stage and Street Fest - 'Izhaar' and 'Halla Bol', which gave a platform for different theater societies to showcase their productions. Honoring the spirit of Street Theatre, Anukriti has also staged community performances.
