Part A.1

The MH NCC Company has an enormous strength of 160 enrolled in the army wing. The young cadets with their endeavors came out with flying colors this year. Session 2016-17 was flagged with various achievements in diverse fields.

Camps like Combined Annual Training Camp (CATC) at Delhi Cantt and Annual Training Camp at Dwarka saw active participation of cadets. JUO Vani Shri Vats was selected as the Camp Senior in CATC 2016. Cadet Simran Kapoor and Cadet Ezaboo Beniwal were chosen as Master of Ceremonies for all the visits. Cadet Surabhi Shukla and Cadet Bhoomika brought laurels for Delhi Directorate by successfully completing Thal Sainik Camp (TSC). Cadet Surabhi Shukla won a medal for piloting.

Corporal Preeti Yadav and Corporal Anita Sudhakaran participated in Advance Leadership Camp in October 2016. JUO Alisha Kataria, Sgt. Pragati, JUO Sadhana Devi, Cadet Deepti and Surabhi participated in National Integration Camp (NIC) held at Satara in Maharashtra. Corporal Preeti Choudhary participated in Army Attachment Camp held at Meerut. Three Cadets - Shaija, Pooja, Jyotsana and Timir Jyoti attended Ajmer Trekking Camp in November 2016

Also, Junior Under Officer Surabhi Shukla and Cadet Simran Kapoor represented our college from Delhi Directorate in the most prestigious NCC Republic Day Camp. JUO Surabhi Shukla was selected in the Guard of Honor and got the opportunity to be a part of the team of 150 cadets to present guard to the Prime Minister and other dignitaries. While CQMS Simran Kapoor brought laurels to the college by being awarded the All India Best Master of Ceremonies gold Medal for being the main emcee for all the VIP visits and the DG Appreciation award, along with being the All India Cultural Senior for the Central Cultural being performed at the Prime Minister house and the Rashtrapati Bhawan. She has also been nominated for Youth Exchange Program. She was also featured in the “Tejasvini” program telecasted on DD News, a program for women achievers, apart from being interviewed by All India Radio, NDTV, Rainbow FM and Doordarshan.

Apart from these incredible achievements, MH-NCC Coy showed its potential to achieve a lot more when NCC Cadets participated in Cleanliness Drive on August 16 and January 17 in collaboration with NSS-

MH. Vittiya Saksharta Abhiyan, VISAKSA was also organized by MH NCC Coy coordinated by our Associate NCC Officer- Capt. (Dr.) Ritu Ahlawat. Cadets also escorted dignitaries like Ministers and Governors at the functions organized by College and University.

MH-NCC team organized two weeks Self Defence Workshop in collaboration with Self Defense Training Unit of Delhi Police Special Unit for Women and Children, Nanakpura in which about 50 NCC Cadets and other students learnt various self defense tactics to defend themselves in times of emergency.

Recently, the MH NCC Coy conducted its annual fest “Nischay” on 9 March 2017 in which around 500 cadets participated from different colleges and competed in a potpourri of competitions like Best drill, Best cadet, Guard and other cultural events. Commanding Officer Col. Soumandera Pandey, Commanding Officer of 1 Delhi Girls Battalion NCC presided over the prize distribution as Chief Guest. Major General (Retd.) S. N. Yadav delivered a talk on Cancer Awareness.

Miranda house NCC has continuously been working towards molding women phenomenally, and shall continue producing the best of all.
