

Miranda House

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

---

Society Annual Report

Society Activities

Society: National Cadet Corps

Year: 2017-18

Student Office Bearers:

Senior Under Officer Surabhi Shukla

Staff Advisors:

Name	Department
Capt. (Dr.) Ritu Ahlawat, Associate NCC Officer	Geography
Dr. Jyoti Talwar	Mathematics

Part A.1

Events/Seminars/conferences/workshops/Extension Activities organized

The new session began with enrollment of new cadets into NCC after a rigorous selection and thus making it to a total of 160 cadets of MH NCC Company. Two cadets from first year were selected for enrollment in Air Wing. For second year cadets, first Combined Annual Training Camp was held in the month of July which gave them an outlook of military life. Miranda House won first prize in six events- Group Song, Rangoli, Group Dance, Solo Song, Quiz, Extempore and Second Prize in Drill Competition. These laurels boosted up the confidence level of the cadets. During summer vacations also, 25 cadets performed yoga on International Yoga Day, after practicing for a 10 day yoga cadre.

Cdt Swati Uniyal and Cdt Anjali Rathore made the MH NCC Coy proud, by keeping its legacy of representing cadets in Thal Sainik Camp and winning various competitions. Anjali Rathore was selected for the obstacle training. Swati Uniyal was nominated for health and hygiene. She received a bronze medal in that competition.

Cdt Simran Kapoor brought an end to the wait of the comeback of Youth Exchange Program badge to the MH NCC Coy after 18 years by being delegated as the Indian Ambassador to Perm Cadet School, Russia, and also becoming the winner of the International Rally of Young Patriots Medal. Another feather to our hat was when, Cdt Sanjana Singh got selected in the Advance Leadership Camp, held in Punjab to hone leadership skills of cadets.

CSM Ashveen Kaur, was selected for Rock Climbing Camp held at Srinagar in Uttarakhand. Earlier this year JUO Kajal Yadav was selected for Snow Skiing Camp held at Kashmir. It was a thrilling experience for her. Five cadets participated in National Integration Camp held at NCC Bhawan, Rohini in Delhi and another six cadets attended the NIC camp at Bharatpur. They made us proud by winning first position in group dance. Cdt Deepa received gold medal for special performance in volleyball. CQMS Akanksha, CSM Ashveen, Cdt Ayushi, Cdt Bhanupriya, Cdt Sophia and Cdt Swati participated in AWWA Skit, receiving appreciation from DGNCC. Cdt Devanshi went for CATC Naval Delhi Camp in January and got third position in Sprint and second position in Tug of War. SUO Surabhi Shukla got the golden opportunity to be a part of OTA Chennai Camp and got a close view of the military life.

Miranda House

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

---

Cdt Bhanupriya, Cdt Mansi Chaudhary and Cdt Sophia made it to the third cadre of Pre-RDC. L/CPL Sanjana Singh made it to prestigious final Republic Day Camp and she also participated in PM Rally. The last baton of the year to MH NCC came in the form of the DG Commendation Card, being awarded to Cdt Simra Kapoor for her remarkable achievements.

Besides camps, MH NCC Coy organized 3 hour session on Self Defense workshop in collaboration with IIT Bombay. November is a special month for every NCC cadet, and this year NCC DAY was celebrated on 26 November by conducting a Cleanliness and Food distribution Drive at Timarpur Basti. Miranda House NCC Coy also celebrated Army Day on Monday, 15th January 2018 at Vishwavidyalaya Metro Station. The Coy with all its Cadets marched down the roads of University North Campus to reach the metro station with a series of posters which was an apt exemplification of patriotism and respect towards the countrymen. The posters tried to convey the message of our gratefulness towards the soldiers on the border. The day concluded by collecting handwritten letters from the students for the border men. This year, Republic Day Celebrations at Miranda House started with a drill performance by MH NCC COY (ATHENAS), followed by 'Salami' to our national flag hoisted by Hon'ble Principal.

Miranda House NCC Coy joined Martyrs' Day programme on Tuesday, 30th January, 2018 in the College premises. On this occasion, a Blood Donation Camp was organised in association with Lion's Blood Bank. The Camp proved to be a successful one because of donors filled with exuberance. It is worth mentioning that of all the 95 donors, 92 were girls. The dedication and zest of students made the day worth remembering.

The annual NCC fest 'Nischay 2018' of MH NCC family was held on 13 February'18. Lt. Col Umang Kohli, Ex Additional Director Publicity of NCC HQ, was the Chief Guest of the event with a participation of over 800 cadets from different NCC units of Delhi. Enthusiastic participation was witnessed in various inter college competitions like Squad Drill Competition, Quarter Guard Competition, Best Cadet Competition, Talent hunt, Battle of Words (Debate), Brain Wars (Quiz) etc.

The year has been full of activities and loads of experiences which has helped in personality and character development of the cadets. The hard work and true dedication of the cadets is revealed through their achievements with the constant support of Commanding Officer - Col. Soumendra Pandey, Associate NCC Officer Capt. (Dr.) Ritu Ahlawat, NCC Staff Advisor - Dr. Jyoti Talwar, GCI Renu and Principal.

Miranda House

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

