Events/Seminars/conferences/workshops/Extension Activities organized

TULA, Miranda House Consumer Club has been playing a pioneer role in developing consumer awareness. Academic session of 2018-19 marked an important year carrying forward this movement through various activities. Orientation was conducted on 9th August 2018 where the freshers were introduced with the work and role of Miranda House Consumer Club. Many students from across disciplines registered and joined the society with eagerness to work for the society.

After the induction of new students into the society, Freshers' Talent Search was organised on the theme of 'Technology and Consumers'. The competition saw various entries in the form of posters and creative writing pieces. Saumya Tyagi was selected as Ms. Fresher of TULA, Miranda House Consumer Club. On 21st August 2018 TULA conducted an interactive session where Prof. Sriram Khanna (Department of Commerce, Delhi School of Economics) gave an insight into the proposed changes in Consumer Protection Act, 1986. The lecture was followed by a question-answer session. On the same platform, Consumer Voice made first announcement of National level competition on Consumer Awareness.

In the month of September, the Nukkad Natak team from TULA participated in the Street play competition organised by Kamala Nehru College. The Nukkad Natak - 'Ventilator' highlighted the plight of consumers in health sector. TULA conducted its first research and study session which was aimed at clarifying the definition of consumer under the purview of Consumer Protection Act, 1986. Students got the answer to their question - 'Who can seek redressal in the consumer court?' The session was interactive where students shared their grievances in the matters of exorbitant prices of electricity and violation of MRP by sellers.

TULA organised its 13th consecutive three-day workshop on Consumer Awareness with various interactive sessions which drew participation from a number of students and faculty on 25-27 September 2019. The workshop was inaugurated by Prof. Ujjwal Kumar Singh who spoke on the topic - 'Consumer and the State today'. This was followed by an interesting quiz based on advertisements. On the second day, Mr. Sanjay Maini gave his insights on 'Unfair trade practices in digital age'. In the second session Mr. Gaurav Raturi (Co-founder, Filmbooth) acquainted students with the tools and techniques of video making and stressed the power of short films in bringing social changes. On the concluding day, students took part in the open house discussion conducted by Dr. Jayshree Pillai. The workshop concluded with the competition - 'What did we learn?' where students presented the knowledge, they gathered over the past three days in the form of skits, elocution, poetry, presentations. Dr. Nandini Dutta judged the competition.

On 30th October 2018, TULA in collaboration with Consumer Voice organised 'On the Spot Meme/Cartoon/Illustration competition'. The competition saw enthusiastic participation from students across the colleges and universities in Delhi.

Miranda House UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

TULA conducted its second research and study session on 27th February 2019 where the new Consumer Protection Bill 2018 was discussed. Students analysed its benefits for consumers and the issues it fails to address.

In observance of the World Consumer Rights Day, 15th March 2019 numerous events were conducted. The celebration commenced with “Best out of Waste” competition. The competition witnessed a huge number of participants with prolific products made out of waste material. This was followed by the speaker's session by Ms. Priyanka Kochhar, Regional Manager, Market development, US Green Building Council. Her lecture mainly focused on Climate Change and Sustainable Development and how consumers can be conducive in the latter. Thereafter, Cleanliness drive was organized where the canteen and PAM area were cleaned by the volunteers by picking up waste. To aware students of their rights as consumers informative content was pasted on Nescafe cups. The celebrations concluded with Zumba Session conducted by the President Ms. Yukti Gupta. The society also worked on its annual magazine SANTULAN which was published later in the year.
