Events organized by TULA MHCCC 2022-23

TULA-Miranda House Consumer Consultative Centre commenced this Academic year of 2022-23 with all the enthusiasm to spread the word of consumerism around. TULA, which stands strong with its values and determination, began its academic year in July with students joining in large numbers from the Second and Third years respectively. Since late admissions due to CUET delayed the arrival of the First-Year students to the college, the orientation date was on 17 November 2022. The new Union along with the heads of various verticals of TULA MHCCC such as, Editorial, Study Circle, Creative, social media, PR and Sponsorship Teams took charge.

TULA in honor of Vigilance Awareness Week 2022, hosted a session on "Anti-Corruption India" in collaboration with the political science department on November 3. The speakers for this year's Vigilance Awareness Week were Mr. Dhananjay Kumar IDAS and Prof. Dr. Rajni Abbi, Proctor of Delhi University. The President of the Political Science Department gave the opening remarks for the seminar followed by the lamp-lighting ceremony and Saraswati Vandana. Hereafter, Prof. (Dr) Jayshree Pillai, convenor, of TULA MHCCC, gave the audience insights into Vigilance Awareness. Prof. (Dr) Bijayalaxmi Nanda, Principal of MH addressed the gathering with her wise remarks. The pledge-taking ceremony was presided over by Principal Ma'am. It was succeeded by a flash mob of students on the respective issue. Our guest speakers were facilitated by Prof. (Dr) Jayshree Pillai and Prof. (Dr) Bijayalaxmi Nanda. After a formal vote of appreciation by the President of TULA, everybody stood up and recited the National Anthem. TULA also conducted two competitions. Firstly, JAM (Just a Minute) competition. Secondly, a Quiz competition for the participants. Both received enthusiastic participation. Winners were announced post the competition.

National Consumer Day 2022

On the occasion of National Consumer Day, TULA organized a Webinar on "Women as consumers" on the 24th December 2022. Ms. Abha Singh, Advocate at The Bombay High Court, human rights activist & former bureaucrat was the speaker of the session. Following a welcome speech by Dr. Hena Singh the session was introduced by Prof. (Dr) Jayashree Pillai.

Inaugural Ceremony of TULA Consumer Consultative Centre

An Inaugural Ceremony of TULA Consumer Consultative Centre was organized on the 5th of January 2023 at 12.00 Noon in Tech Park, near Hostel Gate. It started with a lamp-lighting ceremony which was followed by Saraswati Vandana. Notable speakers of the day were namely Prof. (Dr) Bijayalaxmi Nanda, Ms. Harshita Mishra, Mr. Bharat Parashar, and many more dignitaries from Delhi State Legal Service Authority.

National Consumer Day 2022

On the occasion of World Consumer Rights Day, TULA MHCCC organized a Poster Making Competition on the theme 'Clean Energy Transition', on 15th March 2023. The competition was open to all the students of Miranda House. The students from several disciplines enthusiastically participated and put their knowledge and understanding about the theme on their sheets and harmonized them with colors with their creative minds under the guidance of the president, TULA MHCCC, Ms. Alka Akkara, and the creative team members. Started at 11 am, the competition ended by 12:30 pm, and the colorful posters were presented before the judges, of the competition, Prof (Dr) Hena Singh, Ms. Shruti Sharma Sethi, and Dr. Ceejun Chandran. After deciding and announcing the winners, all the participants introduced the concept behind the posters to the judges. The competition for World Consumer Rights Day ended up with rejuvenating refreshments.

Certificate Course Organised by TULA MHCCC

TULA MHCCC conducted a Three Days Certificate course on the Rights and Responsibilities of the Consumer Citizen on 24, 25, and 26 April respectively.

Day 1- 24th April 2023

TULA, Miranda House Consumer Consultative Centre, organized the Inaugural session of the Three-Day Certificate Course on Rights and Responsibilities of the consumer Citizens" on 24th April, 2023. Prof (Dr) Ujjwal Kumar Singh, senior professor at department of political science, University of Delhi was the guest speaker for the session. Prof (Dr) Rajni Abbi, Proctor, University of Delhi was the chief guest for the session. Prof (Dr) Bijayalaxmi Nanda, Principal, Miranda House was the chairperson.

The session commenced with a warm welcome speech by Prof (Dr) Jayashree Pillai, convenor of TULA MHCCC. The highlight of the event was the felicitation of the esteemed guest, Prof (Dr) Rajni Abbi, by the principal of Miranda House, Ms. Bijayalaxami Nanda. The lamp lighting ceremony was followed by an insightful speech by Prof (Dr) Rajni Abbi, shedding light on the significance of Consumers in today's world. Amidst the dignified aura, the ceremonial proceedings drew to a close with the launch of the Annual Journal of TULA MHCCC for the academic session 2021-22 "Santulan", graced by the presence of the esteemed guests and professors.

The course continued with another session with Senior Professor Dr. Ujjwal Kumar Singh, who is a renowned scholar and researcher in domain of Indian politics. He pointed out that there is no prominent mass mobilization with respect to Consumer Movements and outlined the important conceptual difference. He also mentioned Walter Bagehot's work on the British monarchy and the three important rights he talks about the right to be consulted, the right to encourage, the right to warn. Thus, as a consumer, to be consulted is important. He also talked about regulations and standards. He passionately spoke about the checks and balance system created by consumer duties and responsibilities.

Another highlight of the day was FLASHMOB done by the students of various courses.

Day 2- 25th April 2023

The second day of the course started with the warm welcome speech given by Prof (Dr) Jayashree Pillai, convenor of TULA MHCCC. The chief speaker for the session was Ms. Aparna Rajagopal, a lawyer turned organic farmer and founder of Beejom, the animal welfare and ecological farming unit. Her project of integrated farming was shaped in 2014.

After reading and exploring regarding indigenous cows, she acquired tremendous knowledge regarding the same and opened a cattle preservation center within her farm. She calls her sanctuary "gram" which means it is the home of those animals and it is an animal run sanctuary. It is their home forever. She has also contributed to the society by associating with Self-help groups and value-added products. And also highlighted her recent program Beejon siksha which spreads awareness among people about animal welfare and agriculture.

The session was followed by the ROAD SHOW by college students and respected faculty members which was the highlight, which achieving the desired objective of awareness and participation.

Day 3- 26th April 2023

Prof (Dr) Pushpa Kumar was the guest speaker for third day. He spoke about meaningful consumer citizen focusing on ethical consumerism. We, as consumer citizens, hold claims as entitlements. He underlined the promise that should be made on the part of the government regarding the quality of the product. Also carried on to explain who is a good consumer; a good consumer is a citizen that takes responsibility for the things happening. He should have the guts to complain. Speaker then mentioned about the adverse impact on the environment made by a lot of products as mentioned by the world economic forum. He said that the whole purpose of consumerism should be to lead a happy, healthy and a satisfied life. Green consumerism should be aspired.

The session included Mock Consumer court enacted by college students thus highlighting the achieved objective of the certificate course.

This was followed by the last session for the day, "What is TULA?: Vision and Journey" by Prof (Dr) Jayashree Pillai.
