

SKILL HUB, MIRANDA HOUSE COLLEGE

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

Date: 30/03/2022

Event: Inauguration of Skill Hub under the Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojana (PMKVY)

Convenor: Dr Hena Singh

Skill Hub centre at Miranda House college of University of Delhi inaugurated in Miranda House College by Principal Prof. (Dr) Bijayalaxmi Nanda, along with the Convenor Dr Hena Singh in the presence of other faculty members of the college, Dr Mallika Verma, Dr Amrita Sheikh, Dr Rekha Kumari, Dr Monika Tomar, Dr Monika Vij, Dr Namrata Singh, Dr Shruti Sharma, Dr Surabhi, Mr Tarun, Mr Hemant, Mr Navneet.

Skill India is a programme started under the Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojana (PMKVY) under National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC). 90 learners from different communities registered for the programmes, attended the inauguration ceremony.

Miranda House Placement Cells Skill Hub has 100 percent free certified courses which aims to empower women by imparting professional as well as entrepreneurial skills in them. These certificate courses are offered under the Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojana (PMKVY) is for people within the age group of 15-40 years.

The event began with the lightening of lamps and 'Ganesh Vandana' slokanuvadan by the students of Miranda house. It was followed by brief inaugural address by the Principal. The principal through her speech motivated and encouraged the gathering. Furthermore, Overview of the syllabus as well as the outcome of the courses AI Machine Learning and Green Paper Bag making with a duration of 260 hours and 130 hours respectively was discussed. The concerned teachers briefed about the courses in the event to the attendees through presentation and Videos focussing the future of paperbag. Dr Hena Singh also heartened the participants by showing her interest in learning the new skill. She also emphasised on vitality of developing new skills. A message of Green Environment Clean Environment was spread across.

Prof (Dr) Bijayalaxmi Nanda addressed the participants and encouraged everyone to grab this golden opportunity and make the best use of resources to gain and polish skills. Participants were also encouraged to share their ideas and views in the event. Towards the closing of the event, the President of Placement Cell presented vote of thanks and refreshments were distributed to all the participants and volunteers. The event was successfully concluded with vote of thanks and refreshments.

