

MIRANDA HOUSE
UNIVERSITY OF DELHI
DELHI- 110007

CODE OF CONDUCT
FOR MHSU ELECTIONS 2023-24

All candidates and students are required to strictly adhere to the following guidelines:

1. Adherence to Time Limit: Each candidate is allotted a maximum of 05 minutes to present their manifesto.
2. Structured Question Session: Following the manifesto presentation, a structured question session will be conducted. Each candidate will be allowed to answer two questions, with no cross-questioning or interruptions allowed.
3. Maintaining Decorum: All candidates and the audience must uphold the highest level of decorum throughout the event. Disruptive behavior, including booing and the use of abusive language, will be dealt with appropriate proctorial action.
4. No Offensive Gestures or Symbols: The display of offensive signs, symbols, or gestures including gender insensitive statements or inappropriate gesticulation are strictly forbidden.
5. Enforcement and Consequences: Violation of this Code of Conduct will result appropriate proctorial action. A dedicated security team will be present to safeguard the well-being of all participants and uphold the integrity of the event.
6. Avoidance of Hate Speech: Candidates must refrain from engaging in or promoting any activity that may escalate existing differences or incite hatred among different castes, communities, religious or linguistic groups, or any student cohorts.
7. Combatting Corrupt Practices: All students are strictly prohibited from engaging in or promoting 'corrupt practices,' including but not limited to voter bribery, intimidation, or impersonation.
8. No printed posters, flyers or paper littering will be allowed inside the campus except dedicated slots/ spaces provided by the College.
9. Cooperative Spirit: Candidates are encouraged to cooperate fully with election authorities and fellow participants to uphold the fairness and transparency of the election process.
10. Recommendations of Lyngdoh Committee Report for Student Body and Student Union Elections will be followed in letter and spirit.

This official notice serves as a reminder that strict compliance with this Code of Conduct is mandatory. Failure to adhere to these guidelines will result in serious consequences, including legal action.

We appreciate your cooperation in maintaining a professional and respectful environment during elections 2023-24.

Election Officer