ANTI-RAGGING WARNING

● How to approach

Students facing any form of ragging, harassment, bullying, discrimination, or any campus-related concern are encouraged to approach the Anti-Ragging and Proctorial Committee without hesitation. They may contact any member of Anti-Ragging and Proctorial Committee, or the College Office in person, through email, or via the helpline numbers displayed across the campus. All complaints are handled promptly, confidentially, and with sensitivity to ensure a safe respectful, and inclusive campus environment.

● The Committee will take the following step:?

1. Listen to the student's concerns with empathy and confidentiality.
2. Provide a safe and supportive environment.
3. Take immediate action in cases of ragging, harassment, bullying, or intimidation.
4. Protect the student's safety, dignity, and well-being.
5. Guide students on their rights and the complaint process.
6. Facilitate counselling and refer students to appropriate support services, if required.
7. Ensure fair and timely inquiry into complaints.
8. Take appropriate disciplinary action as per college and UGC regulations.
9. Encourage students to report concerns without fear of retaliation.
10. Promote a respectful, inclusive, and ragging-free campus.
